Why do we ask for this? If we get around to taking photos, we'd like to put them on our website or social media so you can download them, or show your friends. Our dealer sponsors love to have a photo of a happy group of customers riding to show off on their websites as well. If you're worried about how you may look in the photo, keep in mind that if we post a photo of you looking dumb, we look dumb. That is not in our best interest.
